

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE:

TO ALL CHILDREN WHO ARE OR WILL BE IN THE CUSTODY OF MISSISSIPPI'S DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES' (DHS') DIVISION OF FAMILY AND CHILDREN'S SERVICES ("DFCS"):

I. Background of the Case

This notice concerns a proposed settlement of the lawsuit known as Olivia Y., et al. v. Barbour. If you are one of the children described above, or if you are the legal representative of one or more of these children, then you should read this notice.

Olivia Y. was filed in March 2004 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, Jackson Division, against the Governor of Mississippi, the Executive Director of the Department of Human Services, and the Director of DHS's Division of Family and Children's Services, all in their official capacities (together they are called the "Defendants"). This case alleged that Mississippi's foster care system was failing to adequately protect children in its custody and provide necessary services in violation of their federal constitutional rights. This lawsuit sought only court-ordered changes in the system; money damages were never at issue.

Plaintiffs and Defendants have negotiated a proposed settlement as to liability and have asked the federal district judge assigned to the case to approve this settlement. The terms of this settlement agreement are described below. You have the right to review the entire settlement agreement if you choose. You also have the right to tell the judge what you think before the judge decides whether to approve the settlement.

V. The Olivia Y. Settlement

This settlement, if approved by the Court, will resolve the liability phase of this litigation without a trial based on Defendants' agreement not to contest that the constitutional rights of Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff class were violated. Accordingly, the parties agree to move directly to the remedial phase of the litigation. The settlement contemplates that the parties will first attempt to agree on a remedial plan developed by Defendants and the national Council on Accreditation with consultation from the parties' experts. The plan must set forth specific actions and timelines necessary for the Defendants to achieve accreditation, bring the state into substantial conformity with federal standards regarding foster care, and address Plaintiffs' constitutional concerns. If agreement on the remedial plan is reached by the parties, it will become court enforceable, with an outside monitor, and resolve the litigation. If the parties cannot agree on a remedial plan, the parties will proceed to a trial as to the scope of the necessary remedy.

Claims such as those brought in this lawsuit may entitle a party, under certain circumstances, to apply to the Court for its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Any such application for reimbursement of fees and expenses to Class Counsel will be reviewed and determined by the Court in accordance with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(h). This settlement does not affect any person's individual cause(s) of action.
